

Who we are

We are Acts One Eight, Inc ... a Christian ministry proclaiming Christ and making disciples. Acts One Eight has no members, no dues, and no buildings. We are not affiliated with any specific local church, denomination, or other organization. We are pro-Church ... but promote no specific local church or denomination. Our doctrinal beliefs are consistent with historic, conservative Christianity ... and are based solely on taking the Bible at what-it-says-it-says. We do not promote any different gospel, strange teachings, or extra Biblical beliefs and customs. Bible quotations are from the New American Standard Bible ... a literal translation.

Who writes Acts One Eight's teachings? John Morris is the author. He is a Bible teacher, proclaimer of the Gospel, father, grandfather, and great grandfather. John has been a Christian for more than 60 years ... married to the wife of his youth for more than 50 years ... and a full-time Christian worker for more than 40 years. He worked in nuclear physics and computer science before entering full-time Christian work. His ministry has been in the USA, Poland, Russia, and England ... and to the remotest parts of the earth via the Internet. Much of his current ministry is as a Bible teacher on the Internet. You may contact him at John@WebSiteMail.org.
